

UNICA Student Conference 2017 “Towards a Student-Centered University”

UNICA Student Conference 2017 “Towards a Student-Centered University”

It is our pleasure to announce that Sapienza University of Rome in cooperation with the Universities of Rome “Tor Vergata”, “Rome Tre” and “Foro Italico”, will host of the 9th UNICA Student Conference “Towards a Student-Centered University” on 4-7 October 2017

General information

Our university is a Member of the UNICA Network and each member University is invited to select a delegation of up to 10 students, whereas Member Universities from the capital cities that count more than one UNICA Member are asked to select 10 students in total. The participating students are required to be fluent in English, the official language of the Conference and they are in the last year of their first cycle, second cycle or third cycle of studies. The Conference will be organised around 10 different topics. Students from each delegation will be invited to choose one if the 10 forums corresponding to these 10 topics. Accommodation /4 nights from 4-7 October 2017/, meals, cultural events and local transportation costs will be covered by the four host Universities in Rome. Our university covers the travel costs of your students to and from Rome

Theme of the conference: “Towards a Student-Centered University”

Topics for the 10 discussion forums

- selected together with student representatives from The European Students Union / ESU / and Erasmus Student Network / ESN /

1 - Quality of Higher Education

2 - Student-Centred Learning

3 - New ways of teaching and learning

4 - Fostering access to Higher Education

5 - Student Mobility

6 - Recognition

7 - Employability of students

8 - Greener University

9 - Intergration of refugees: What can universities do?

10 - The Future of Europe